1. BRIEF ABOUT THE PROGRAMME

Transcultural Psychosocial Organasation (TPO) started in 1994 while affiliated to Netherlands International NGO-HNTPO; it became an autonomous in Uganda as National Organisation in 2001 allowing TPO to replicate some of its promising practices acquired elsewhere in Uganda and Somalia and community- based child protection work and community based mental health and psychosocial support. TPO has been active in the great lake chad region for close to 21 years now working with communities affected by conflict in Uganda, Somalia, South Sudan, Kenya, Nepal, D.R. Congo and Burundi. Our two-prolonged approach includes both direct service delivery and capacity building interventions. Our interventions are all guided by a community- orented approach that places emphasis on identifying and utilizing existing traditional structural and infusing western concepts into local knowledge for which TPO DRC has concluded and expanding these both to Nigeria.

TPO has a long - standing collaboration with UNICEF spanning over 15 years. In DRC and Uganda, we are the key UNICEF partner for child protection materials development and capacity building. While in Somalia , we recently concluded a 5- year engagement with UNICEF where we supported the AMISOM Peacekeeping operations to intergrate child protection responses into their operations. Also in Somalia under the same partnership agreement, we have built the capacity of over 12 local Somali organisations to design, impliment and monitor psychosocial support and child protection interventions in Kenya in 2008,TPO was contracted by UNICEF to build capacity across all four provinces to respond to the child protection concerns arising in the aftermath of the post- election violence. However, in DR Congo TPO has capacitated 49 community-based organisation and 251 child protection committee, 40 peace clubs, 42 child friendly space activities. We trained 501 teachers in Community based mental health & psychosocial support within schools and established children's club both technically and meterially.TPO also Partner with UNICEF in Emergency Response to children and Womwen Exiting Armed Groups Through Multi-sectoral and Service delivery in Hajj Camp,North East Nigeria."The UN Offer to Support the federal and the State Government in Implimenting the Borno Model"

At a global level, TPO is an active member of the club Protection Global Forum, a member of the save the children led community Based Child Protection Machemisms reference group, an affiliated civil society organisation to the Global Child Protection working Group as well as the Coalition Against the use of Child Soldiers and a member of the Columbia University Mailman School of Hublic Health Child Protection in Crisis Group. TPO is also a member of the Psychosocial Network as well as a REPSSI (Reginal Psychosocial Support initiatives) partner.
Since commencing in DRC close to seven years ago, we have established a solid presence in South Kivu, Norths KIVU, Tangayika, Maneima, Kasai central and Kinshasa in all these provinces we have established community- based child protection.

The Transcultural Psychosocial Organisation's mission in Nigeria is to empower local communities, civil society organisations and government institutions to adequately address the much needed Community Based mental Health and Psychosocial Support needs of the affected population and communities especially in conflict, post conflict and disaster affected areas.

TPO provides services to the targeted benificiaries by assisting them cope and soften their mental health and psychosocial problems. It also provides and impliments technical support to communities helping communities CBOs/CSS) improving livlehoods income generating activities. Its psychosocial services build capacity within the communities enabling them to identify, support and manage the psychosocial problems of children, their families and other affected people living in their communities.
